

Statement against modern slavery and human trafficking

This statement is made in relation to Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Astute Electronics Ltd., (“Astute”) is a distributor of electronic components, and products and services, supported by a global supply chain.

Astute together with its subsidiaries is committed to conducting business ethically and upholding basic human rights in its operations. Astute does not tolerate the use of human trafficking, modern slavery or child labour in its operations or supply chain.

Astute encourages employees and suppliers to report any suspected human trafficking related activity.

Astute will never knowingly do business with customers, suppliers and other business partners who do not comply.

Astute’s Standard Terms and Conditions of Purchase define the requirements of its suppliers and their third-party supply chains to comply with international ethical standards.

Susan Jacques
Strategic Business Director
December 2018

Astute Electronics Ltd

Astute House
Rutherford Close
Stevenage
Hertfordshire
SG1 2EF

United Kingdom

T +44 (0) 1438 909 909

astute.global